Music show with Colleen Duguay at the Grand-Barachois Golden Age Center

Everyone is invited to come and listen to a young artist from the community, Colleen Duguay, on Wednesday August 18 from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. at the Grand-Barachois Golden Age Center. Weather permitting, this free show will be performed outside at the same location as the Celebrate Music evenings, so you must bring your chairs.

This artist has been playing the violin from a very young age and she will perform Acadian music for you in addition to offering you some of her compositions. There will be surprises for the participants, especially for the children, so we invite the families of Beaubassin-est to come and enjoy this great free activity!

It is not necessary to register for this activity, but if it is raining and the show is presented inside the Center, there will be a limit of participants. Please note that Beaubassin-est staff will be taking photos for publication on our Facebook page, so please advise them if you do not wish to be photographed.
