Music show with Colleen Duguay

Since there will be summer camps offered this year due to the pandemic, Beaubassin-est is launching a new youth program for the summer of 2021. With the staff, the students have developed various activities that will please everyone.

Colleen Duguay, an artist from the community who has been playing the violin from a very young age, will perform a series of two Acadian music performances for children at the Cormier-Village Cultural and Sports Center. The shows will take place on Wednesdays, July 14 and August 18, from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. The children will also have the chance to listen to songs that Colleen has composed herself.

To register, please call the Beaubassin-est Rural Community office at 532-0730, send an email to emilie.leblanc@beaubassin-est.ca or send us a message through our page Facebook. You will be asked to provide us with the child's first and last name, age, telephone number and permission to have their picture taken. Only children between the ages of six and twelve can register and a maximum of twenty registrations will be accepted.
