Beaubassin-est is one of the finalists of the Éloizes Awards and the winners will be announced on Saturday June 5

The Beaubassin-est Rural Community is one of the finalists for the 2020 Éloizes Awards, in the Support of the Arts category. The Gala could not take place last year and the Association acadienne des artistes professionnel.le.s du Nouveau-Brunswick (AAAPNB) will announce the prize winners during the Soirée des Éloizes which will be broadcasted on Saturday, June 5, at 8 p.m. on Radio-Canada and online.

The Éloizes allow artists and communities to build relationships and pay tribute to those who breathe new life into the development of modern Acadia. Beaubassin-est is a finalist in the Support of the Arts category for its support of the arts and culture community in recent years, through the adoption of the Cultural Policy and Plan. The other finalists in this category are the Fédération des jeunes francophones du Nouveau-Brunswick for the 15th anniversary of Accros de la chanson, and the City of Edmundston for the arts in the heart of the city.
