

Grants to community group and agencies

The Beaubassin-est Rural Community invites organizations and community groups to submit a request to receive a financial contribution. Grant applications will be evaluated according to the following evaluation criteria:

- Grant applications are made by a non-profit community organization / group that serves the population of Beaubassin-est;
- The requested grants must help to organize specific activities of the organization / group that will have an impact on the community;
- Priority will be given to grant applications that will be used to help people in need in the municipality.

Funding applications are evaluated twice a year, deadlines for submission of the Grant Application Form are March 31st and October 31st.
